Dear Muse

Q: At several Jazz Jambalayas, I've seen several guests who brought their alcohol. Is this OK?

A: Unfortunately, no. Because the Gulf City Lodge is licensed by the Alabama Beverage Control to sell adults spirits, when you bring your own bottle into the club, you are putting them at risk of a fine, jail or losing their license. Please leave your bottles at home.

The Lodge, the "official" home of MOJO, has been very kind to us. Our partnership includes use of the building gratis for Jambalayas on an evening when they are normally closed. The staff gives up their time off to prepare our food, be our servers and provide security. They take care of us very well, with lots of Southern hospitality thrown in for good measure. Support them with your beverage order, a tip and a smile!
