Q: What is your idea of perfect happiness?

A: Good health and peace. Peace in the world would be nice, too!

Q: What is the trait you most deplore in yourself?

A: Procrastination.

Q: What is the trait you most deplore in others?

A: Dishonesty. No conscious.

Q: Which living person do you most admire?

A: Don Snowden, my husband. He, a self-made man, embraces his students and music efforts with whole unselfish heart, mind and talents never holding back even if it means giving up personal time. Never gets ruffled or raises his voice and is a secure inner mode outward all the time. He always makes sure I have something I can eat.

Q: What do you consider the most overrated virtue?

A: Multi-tasking.

Q: Which words or phrases do you most overuse?

A: "Far out."

Q: When and where were you happiest?

A: On the trip to Pearl Harbor with my 'Pearls' in 2011. See PearlHarborOneLastGoodbye.com for more information.

Outside the Pearly Gates, St. Peter is explaining the new procedure for admission to Heaven. "Times change and even Heaven must change with them," he explains. "All new arrivals must answer a few questions. Your information will be entered into our celestial database and retained as a part of your administrative records."

He turns to the first new arrival. "First, what was your annual income on earth?"

"350,000 dollars a year," she replied.

"Which profession were you in?" he continued.

"I was a bank manager."

"Thank you," says St. Peter, "you may enter."

The next soul approaches. "What was your annual income?"

"100,000 dollars."

"And your profession?"

"I was a doctor."

"Thank you," says St. Peter, "you may enter."

A third soul approaches the pearly gates.

"What was your annual income on earth?" inquires St. Peter.

"Six grand."

"So," says St. Peter, "which band did you play in?"
